ט	Pey KeyWords
פיה	Pey: 17 th Letter
פה	Pey: Mouth
פאר	Pa'ar: To Gape, To Open Wide
פתח	Patach: To Open
פתח	Petach: Door, Entrance
פצה	Patzah: To Open, To Part
פוח	Puach: To Puff, To Blow

The name of the letter Pey - פיה signifies the mouth. God used it in the three alphabetic verses above. When pronounced Po it means blow or puff. It has two sounds - the hard Pey and soft Pheh. The soft Pheh is like the English "F." The hard Pey sounds like the English "P" and is indicated by placing a dot (a dagesh in the center - פּ). It is called a plosive because the sound is formed by the bursting sound formed by a sudden opening the lips after building up pressure behind them. This is the elementary power of the letter. It sets the tone for Spoke 17. Numerous Pey KeyWords carry the ideas of opening, parting, and splitting. Many of these words are now seen in English, as will be discussed as they are encountered.
